

OGDEN DEP'T.

HERALD BRANCH OFFICE,
613 UTAH LOAN & TRUST BUILDING.

Ogden, November 25.

GREAT IS OUR OXY.

For a period of nearly six months some gentlemen in this city who represent London capitalists have been investigating ox properties in this territory. As a result of their investigations, and after having samples submitted in London, they have arrived at the conclusion that the man now occupied by Mexican oxen will shortly be supplanted by the Utah ox. It has been found that whereas the Mexican oxen can only be obtained in very small pieces, the Utah oxen can be obtained in large pieces averaging six square feet.

A company has been organized in Ogden representing the Utah ox. They will incorporate next week and they have undertaken to erect cutting and polishing works here. Negotiations are now pending for the purchase of a piece of land upon which to erect the factory. Whilst nothing has been done by these gentlemen in the way of asking the city for material assistance there is every probability that this enterprise will be as tangible a nature as some of the other propositions that have recently been made to Ogden. We are reliably informed that the officers of the prospective company will be Daniel Hamer, president; F. S. Brecken, treasurer, and Dr. George F. Phillips, secretary.

WEBER COUNTY TEACHERS.

The Weber county teachers met yesterday in the city hall, with President Hall in the chair. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mr. Fowles, of Hooper, conducted an exercise in reading from a new reader, explaining his method of drawing out the thought and producing natural expression.

Superintendent Hall gave an exercise in drawing, showing how relief maps might be easily drawn, giving illustrations upon the blackboard.

Mr. Bidwell led in the review of the first chapter, "Parker's Pedagogy," dwelling upon "What is the Child?" Mr. Soule spoke in regard to "Myth," showing that the child gains a knowledge of history through fairy tales.

Mr. Smart gave a number of illustrations concerning the child's learning physics, mineralogy and geography.

Mr. Fossitt followed with the "Child and its Natural Surroundings." Mr. Davis took up "Learning to Write," and reviewed the rest of the chapter.

The following schools had less than fifty scholars during the month:

Miss Priscilla Boyd, Plain City, 2; John Wheeler Randall, 2; Mrs. Cora Canfield, Farr West, 3; Thomas McCaskey, Huntsville, 2; Miss Anna Price, 2; Mrs. Jessie Willard, Harrisville, 4; J. H. Fowles, Hooper, 4.

R. P. CRITCHLOW, President.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

The cause which is still on hearing in the district court is that of Robert J. Hawthorn against W. H. Rowe et al. The suit is to determine the title to about 12 acres of land in Cache county. Friday evening the jury returned a verdict for $50, the amount sued for, in the case of C. K. Bamister vs. Pullman Palace Car company. Defendant was today granted twenty days' stay of execution.

In the case of Harry I. Duke vs. George G. Griffith, plaintiff granted ten days in which to file notice of intention to move for new trial. The clerk was today ordered to issue to all jurors in attendance certificates for amount due them to date.

Fred C. Keayson vs. Ogden City Street Railway, and other agreement of counsel cause, stricken from present setting.

NEW SUIT FILED.

George C. Burton, a minor, through his guardian, Sarah A. Tannison, has commenced suit against the Ogden Investment company to recover $15,000 for injuries sustained while employed by that company to construct a tunnel for the Utah Loan and Trust company building.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION.

There is quite a crop of candidates out for nomination as members of the school board. There are many good men in the field, and the voters will exercise the greatest care in making the selection. The general feeling now is that the board should be strictly non-partisan, and the voters will step in the right direction. It is possible that the city government may soon be brought to the same plane.

NOTICE OF JOINT CAUCUS.

Notice calling for a joint caucus of both Democrats and Republicans has been published, the city central committees of both parties having united in declaring for a non-partisan election for members of the board of education, the same to be held at the city hall, at the time and in the places following, to wit:

First Ward—At City hall, November 30, at 7:30 p. m.
Second Ward—At Thomas' hall, November 30, at 7:30 p. m.
Third Ward—At Southwell's hall, Fifth Points, November 30, at 7:30 p. m.
Fourth Ward—At the city hall, November 30, at 7:30 p. m.
Fifth Ward—At Fifth ward institute, November 30, at 7:30 p. m.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

John Peterson, the boy arrested on a charge of theft, was committed to the Reform school.

General Superintendent J. A. Fillmore and other officials of the Southern Pacific arrived from San Francisco tonight.

"Louie," the fatter, has now obtained from food for twenty-seven days, and his normal condition is, to say the least of it, surprising.

Pet La Pava was arrested on Friday night for discharging a revolver on the street, and was yesterday fined $2 and costs.

In the probate court yesterday an order was made in the estate of Swan W. Linder, deceased; fixing December 5, at 10 a. m., for hearing the petition of Caroline D. Linder for the appointment of herself as administratrix.

A ROAST OF ELAUD.

[From Chamber's Journal.]
The flesh of the elaud is excellent, fat, well tasted, and resembling young beef, with a gamelle flavor. The shape of the animal is, of course, well known. For many years specimens of the unstriped, South American variety have been exhibited in the Zoological Society Gardens. These elauds, however, scarcely fairly represent the beast in its wild state, and grow to nothing like the size and bulk. Mr. Burleigh informs me also that the breed shows in captivity a tendency to deterioration, and occasionally requires fresh blood. Many of these beautiful animals have been imported and bred as ornaments to noblemen's parks.

A former Lord Derby bred them for some years—the present stock at the Zoological Gardens represents it. He bred his elauds in the same way as some, and there are still a few here and there in parks about the country.

A butcher in Shrewsbury once had the carcass of an elaud of Lord Hills for sale, but found it an impossibility to induce people to buy and eat it. Good was said of the animal, but the typical British mistrust would have nothing to say to such newfangled stuff.

The elaud is so comely, so striking, and yet without so gentle a beast, uniting some of the finest points of the antelope family with those of the zebu of India, and is so easily domesticated, that it is not surprising that the wonder is herds are not more often seen in private grounds. A little fresh blood now and again would serve to keep up the required condition and growth.

NEWS FROM NEARBY CITIES AND TOWNS.

OUR NORTHERN NEIGHBORS.
A terrible fate befel the infant son of Henry Maguire, at Carroll Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Maguire was scrubbing the kitchen floor with hot lye, and for a moment left the bucket standing in the sink with soap suds upon the room. Tommy, her 16-month-old boy, in some way upset the pail and spilled the contents over his body. His left side was scalded and his face and neck terribly burned.

Medical assistance was summoned and Dr. Stephens did everything possible to relieve the little sufferer, but death came at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. It is not known if he swallowed any of the fluid, the fumes were sufficient to cause death.—Anacanda Standard.

Governor McCongill is said to be sharpening his spearhead axe. Idaho's governor possesses one that would make the world better if all men had it. He stays with his friends.—Boise Democrat.

Robert, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Con. Hubbs, living about seven miles below town, met with an accident on Monday while hunting. A double-barreled, muzzle-loading shotgun exploded, tearing the barrel apart and disconnecting the stock. The boy's face and left hand were badly cut, but no bones were broken.—Bellevue Herald.

The stage ride between Nampa and Silver City is now cut in two by a lay over at Reynolds creek, where it stops overnight. This will be good news for travelers, who heretofore had to cross the night during the middle of the day instead of at night, and leave Reynolds creek fortified with a comfortable night's rest.—Boise Democrat.

Thousands of sheep have been driven through town within the past few days. The owners expressed no desire to get rid of them, notwithstanding free wool.—Boise Democrat.

There is considerable excitement in Spokane over the finding of rich placers on French creek, about 15 miles from Pierce city, and about 20 miles from where Colgate's body was found, says a Spokane correspondent of the Missoula Democrat. Several Spokane men explored the placers on French creek, and with good success. They are said to have uncovered rich diggings and are putting in hydraulic works and getting in shape for a big manuever. From reports made they expect to clean up from $15 to $20 a day for each man's work. Cabins are being built and enough supplies laid in to last the winter through the hardest kind of a winter.

"A special to the Salt Lake Herald says Charles Bunting is in the race for senator. This is as it should be. Bunting is a man of high character and the success of the Republican ticket; if he wants it the party owes him the place. If we are to have a Republican senator, the Times emphatically endorses Charles Bunting."—Idaho Falls Times.

The Wood River Times and other Republican papers are claiming that the Populists traded Ballentine, their candidate for governor, for Captain Gunn. The result doesn't show it. Ballentine ran ahead of Governor Stevenson, Democratic nominee for governor. If he had been swapped so largely, he would have beaten McCongill.—Boise Democrat.

OUR EASTERN NEIGHBORS.

Johnson county, Wyo., will endeavor to have the state legislature make an appropriation of $25,000 to reimburse the county for expenses incurred in prosecuting the parties who took part in the cattleman's strike in 1893.

The Boomerang recently announced that the Union Pacific was securing patents to the lands on the Laramie plains from which purchases had been made by the Wyoming Central Land and Improvement company. This was good news to those who had purchased land from the Laramie company. The Union Pacific company is seeking to acquire the patents to over 100,000 acres of land in Albany and Laramie counties which were included in its grant by the government to encourage the building of the railroad. The fee which the company have to pay the government for surveying, etc., when the patents are issued, amount to nearly $10,000.—Boomerang.

It is estimated that over 500,000 head of sheep have been driven into Sweetwater county from outside points, principally from Utah, to graze during the winter. Sweetwater county derives most of its revenue from these herds, and the ranchmen in that county seriously object to having the ranges destroyed by the foreign sheep. The matter will be a subject for legislation at the coming session of the legislature.—Boomerang.

OUR SOUTHERN NEIGHBORS.
There is a mining camp called Bachelor's Rest about sixty miles north of Tucson, A. T., and the population now numbers upward of 800. There is not a woman now in the camp, and 200 of the men have advertised for wives in a Tucson paper. They must be of good character and understand the duties of a household. The richest mine offers a dowry of $10,000. You will notice that it says that there is not a woman nor a cat in camp. We trust that our lady readers will not for a moment be misled by the word "cat" in a synonymic sense. Furthermore, we do not publish this in order to create an exodus of our marriageable ladies.

A GALLANT BOY.

How Edward Prince of Wales Won the Sobriquet of Black Prince.
In the summer of the year 1245, Edward III crossed the English channel with 30,000 men to invade France. At Crecy, not far from the Seine, he was met on the 26th of August by King Philip with 120,000 men. The English were defeated in three lines and occupied a small eminence. After the soldiers had been confessed, Edward rode up and down the ranks, bidding each man to fight for St. George and the dragon and "so sweetly and with so good countenance and merry cheer did he speak that all took courage on hearing him."

When the French were coming on in great disorder, there was a total eclipse of the sun, accompanied by a terrible storm, after which the sun came out brightly, shining directly in the faces of the French, but on the backs of the English. The first charge was made by the English, and the French who came forward with a shout as though to scare the English. The latter, who had been ordered to lie flat on the earth, sprang up, stepped forward, and they seemed like blinding snow. The Genoese fled, and the French king ordered them to lie down, so that they would not hinder the rest of the army. In the meantime, Edward, the Prince of Wales, who was in command of one division, was surrounded by French knights, who, recognizing his rank, determined to capture or kill him. A message was sent to the king telling him that the prince was hard pressed. "Is my son sent no more to me as long as my son is alive? I command them to suffer the child to win his spurs, for this day should be his." The young prince was indeed in great danger. At one time he was surrounded and struck to the ground, but one of his loving Welsh knights, who carried for the prince a dragon standard, threw it over him as he lay and stepped upon it. Still the enemy was forced back.

Soon as the tide of battle had turned the English, Edward came down from his horse, looking the French king and took his son in his arms and kissed him. "You are my true son," he said, "richly loyal have you acquitted yourself and shown yourself to be a sovereign."

Young Edward on this occasion wore a suit of black armor, which so confused the French king's army and gold surcoat and the brilliantly fair complexion of his round boyish face that he was called from that time the Black Prince.
